

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Question 1: What is AlSadaqa?

AlSadaqa (formerly known as Baitul Mal Pacific Northwest) is a local Muslim 501 c 2 non-profit with the charter of implementing and promoting Sadaqa in individual and community life under the guidance of Quran and tradition of Prophet Muhammad (pbuh). Our main focus is on providing financial assistance to needy in our local community.

Question 2: What is the purpose of this club?

The purpose of the club is to educate our kids about sadaqa in practical form.

Question 3: What is the joining fee for this club?

The fee is $10 per quarter.

Question 4: What is the age group to join this group?

From k to 6, all Medina Academy Redmond school kids are welcome to join.

Question 6: How often will this club meet?

Once a month after school hours; 3:05-3:30pm.

Question 7: What will the club members learn?

About practical application of sadaqa.

Question 8: Will there be any field trips?

Yes, there will be field trips like going to the library to do some volunteer work, etc.

Question 9: What will be the activities in the meetings?

Some activities are making a sadaqa box, learning about sadaqa, and going on field trips.

Question 10: What is the role of AlSadaqa organization in this club?

AlSadaqa is sponsoring the club through Medina Academy.

Question 11: How can parents participate in AlSadaqa Club?

Parents are encouraged to attend regular meetings.

Question 12: Who are the main point of contact for this club?

Sr. Erum and Sr. Farah (Members of AlSadaqa)

Question 13: What is the contact for AlSadaqa club?

AlSadaqa club representatives Sr. Erum and Sr. Farah – club@alsadaqa.org