

ALSADAQA CLUB

Plan for the quarter "April-June 2010"

April 7, 2010:

- Theme : "Becoming a better me" Part 1 (I follow the rules because that's what Allah likes and other people expect from me...it's a sadaqa to be an easier person who follows instructions)
- Fun Quiz: Rules at various places/occasions
- Hadith/verse: Taking care of the plants
- Field trip: Planting a Tree

We will cover the rules in a fun way. Instructions to follow at various places and occasions such as rules of Allah swt/Islam, rules at home, school rules, sitting at a gathering, going to a friend's house, attending a class, going to party etc.

May 5, 2010:

- Theme: "Becoming a better me" Part 2 (I try to use good manners so people around me feel comfortable and happier to be with me...it's a sadaqa to be a harmless and friendly person)
- Workshop: Manners and etiquettes
- Project: Book mark activity/quoting a relevant hadith
- Introduction of the skit show (making groups, giving out scripts, assigning directors etc)

We will focus on manners in a fun activity. Some of the examples would be the etiquettes which we should use at various places and with people of different ages and relationship. Focus will be our behaviors with siblings, peers, teachers, elders etc. Also plan to focus on gossip among children, telling bad things about each other, calling names, bullying, grouping, using bad language etc.

June 2, 2010:

- Final rehearsal for the skits show inshaAllah
- Skits show (multiple skits of around 5-10 minutes carrying the message of sadaqa; plus to add variety, we will add solo or chorus of nasheeds or recitation of surahs in between)

InshaAllah we plan on having a show on the first weekend of June. By the end of April, we will start working with the children by giving them their relevant scripts, telling them roles, assigning directors and telling them their schedules for rehearsals. Also, inshaAllah by mid-May, we will be mailing you details about the theatre (venue), the timings, length of the show and the duration and tickets etc.

This is to encourage children to use their talents and to enhance their presentation skills. Also and more importantly, presenting sadaqa deeds in a dramatic way will be a good way for children to grasp the different ways of doing sadaqa at every moment in their life inshaAllah.
